NATIONAL BANK TO REOPEN.

Brooklyn Institution After Reorganization to Resume Business, New York, Jan. 16.-Depositors of the First National Bank, of Brooklyn, which closed its doors in the latter part of Ocober, learned to-day that there was every likelihood of the institution resuming business on or about February 3. It was said that Receiver Schofield had straightened out the affairs of the bank, and that when the Jenkins Trust Company pays its indebtedness of $325,000 the First National Bank will be in excellent ndition. Mr. Schoffeld's report has been orwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency at Washington.

Before the bank is reopened it will be reorganized, and it was said to-day that ne of the members of the Jenkins famwould act in an official capacity. John Jenkins, sr., will probably retire as esident, and his sons will withdraw as
